

instaARTS

Delivering Artists to YOU

InstaARTS are free LIVE online classes with Pennsylvania Council on the Arts rostered teaching artists. Students in grades 3 – 12 are invited to discover their inner artist through a survey of art mediums including visual art, poetry, movement, music, and theater. Classes will meet for forty minutes via Zoom. Fall courses run October 20 – December 19, 2020

SACHELLE DAE

Explore a variety of visual art mediums and find a creative outlet while still learning about classical art foundations. You will strengthen your drawing skills, learn the "science" of art, and add your own flair to create masterpieces.

REBECCA HAVU

Improvisation is an essential skill you can apply to all aspects of your life! Learn how to create characters, scenes, and games off the top of your head. This class teaches essential skills for drama, comedy, collaboration, and self-confidence! Be prepared to laugh until your face falls off!

KELSEY HOLLEY

Grades 6-12: Move, Stretch, and challenge yourself!

Learn about Ballet, Modern and Jazz dance technique, and how each style evolved throughout history.

Grades 3-5: Move, Stretch, Learn about the elements of Dance, and how to use academics, such as Math and Creative writing, to build your own choreography!

ALTYNAI JANTAEVA

Maximize your creativity and potential through ballroom dance. Educational and exciting virtual lessons that incorporate history, dance terminology, and interactive choreography. Join the journey that helps you feel the rhythm of the music and sets your soul free.

TARA MIDDLETON

Experience the world through music by learning vocal techniques while gaining exposure to a wide variety of vocal styles. Experience the thrill of writing an original song, learning Music Theory, and discovering music from around the world!